Quality: Similar to last.

Demand: Fairly strong demand.

Buyers: Blenders lent useful support. Loose Tea Buyers were fairly active.

LEAF-CTC:

Brokens: Clean good liquoring types met with fairly strong demand and sold mostly at firm rates. Mediums sold well at around previous levels. Plainer sorts met with selective interest and witnessed some withdrawals.

Fannings: Best and the below best types were a strong market and ruled firm to little dearer than last. Mediums met with a good demand and sold at firm to dearer rates of up to Tk. 5 following competition. Plainer types met with a fair demand and suffered some withdrawals.

Bought-Leaf Teas: Better types sold well at firm to occasionally little dearer rates whilst, others met with selective demand and were mostly neglected.

Dust: Met with a strong demand. Clean bright liquoring descriptions were a dearer market following competition. Others met with fairly good demand at generally around last levels with some withdrawals. CD's were a strong feature, especially the cleaner types.

Comment: Well-made good liquoring teas continue to attract strong demand from all sections of the market. Others met with an improved demand in line with quality. Cleaner CD's were a strong market.
